FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--The Reserve Officer Training Corps program at Eastern Illinois University has announced that Mark Porter, son of Gary and Teresa Porter of Rantoul, recently completed six weeks of training at the ROTC Basic Camp at Fort Knox, Ky.

Porter, a senior political science major at Eastern, will now be qualified to earn a commission as an army officer in two years while attending Eastern.

The camp is used to allow students who have only two years of study remaining to earn accelerated placement in the college ROTC program.
